Getting Started Begin by downloading the GIMP from www.gimp.org. Once downloaded, run the software and view the GIMP Help file. ## Adding Gradients Let's review the simple process of transforming an image into a gradient image. 1. Use the Magic Wand tool (W) to select all of the solid colors within the image. Select only a few of these colors; the object will gradually become transparent as you add more colors, starting with the colors you selected. If you are in the process of adding a multicolor gradient to a single color, select the color and then use the Gradient Tool (G) to select the gradient it will represent. 2. Use the drop-down menus at the bottom of the Gradient dialog box to select from the available gradients. The four basic gradient effects are a

There's a reason that Photoshop software is popular. It's the world's most used and most powerful image editing software. When you're ready to upgrade your account to a paid subscription for higher level Photoshop editing tools, you have two options: Adobe Photoshop or Adobe Photoshop Elements. As an alternative to Photoshop, Adobe Photoshop Elements is a great option. It's a powerful and robust graphics editor for photos, web design, and graphic design. It's good for beginners who want to learn the features of the program, or advanced Photoshop users who want to simplify their editing process. There are a lot of ways that you can use Photoshop Elements. You can use it to edit photos, create tutorials and ebooks, do photo printing, or even design websites. Below are a few of the most popular ways you can use Photoshop Elements. Create Memes With Photoshop Elements, there are a lot of cool features you can use to create memes. Among the most popular features include the ability to add filters, crop and resize images, enhance colors, duplicate images, add frames to your images, merge and split images, and add stickers to images. You can even customize your memes and add text that's a different color from the other text on the image. You can customize your memes and add text that's a different color from the other text on the image. Below are a few popular memes you can create with Photoshop Elements and its viral filter. You can download and install the Photoshop Elements meme template shown below (free to use), or if you want to create your own memes and templates, check out our comprehensive list of Photoshop meme templates and Photoshop sticker templates. Add a Fuzzy Effect To Your Pictures It's a small feature, but there are a lot of cool ways you can use Photoshop Elements to add a fuzzy look to your images. Hey there, My name is Liana and Im working as a Bartender at Barrio Fiesta in Oxnard, Ca. I love to listen to different kind of music and Im hoping to give my honest reviews of some of these bands and you may enjoy reading the thoughts that I have when listening to music. Monday, March 17, 2017 You Missed The Boat - What Lovers Do This is the second album of You Missed the Boat that I have listened to and even at this point, I can still sing along to many of their songs. I love their sound, the harmonies and the constant guitar riffs throughout the album. "What Lovers Do" is a perfect song for the ones that are in love and are ready to just spend the rest of their lives together:Q: How to get an element by id using Javascript (or any Javascript) on a page that is loaded dynamically? Ok, so I have a page where I load a div from another page. I'm not using the ajax technique for this, I'm simply loading the div into the current page. So this is the page that loads the div: function LoadBalance(page) { $(page).load('Balance.aspx'); } When called from a button, it works fine and the div that I'm loading has an id="balanceBox". But once loaded, there is not, I don't know why and this is where I need your help. My question: Is there a way to get the element by id or retrieve it from the currently loaded page? If the answer is no, I'm ok with the fact I don't know how to do it but I will take any method you recommend, which one should I use? If the answer is yes, can you please explain your solution. Thanks, A: You have to do this: var element = document.getElementById("balanceBox"); Or: var element = document.getElementsByClassName("balanceBox"); But if you want to get the element by ID - don't use a class name to define that ID, that's why its not working. Read more about ID from here And there is no solution with your situation. Because you have to click a button, before the JS runs, so you can't get this DOM object, before it is ready
